

We are looking for an Associate (advocaat medewerker) Structured Finance

FIZ seeks

A pro-active structured finance associate attorney with 4-8 years of experience. The candidate should preferably have a strong background on structured finance and securitization transactions with excellent technical skills in order to serve a primary role in drafting transaction documents and negotiating transaction terms and documentation. Will work closely with partners and our high-profile customer base to mostly assist leading mortgage sector companies. A true team player who will also be encouraged to take an active role in the development of our boutique law firm specialized in legal and strategic services. A completed Grotius Finance and Securities is a plus.

About FIZ

The unique combination of practice areas in Structured Finance, Restructuring, Recovery and Financial Regulatory Law makes FIZ the leading partner for all complex financial matters. We are well known for our strong track record in serving the Dutch mortgage sector. We are experts in business financing, wholesale and securitization transactions and the use of similar financing structures across multiple sectors.

Our structured finance team brings an exemplary track record and an in-depth knowledge of asset management, credit management and debt restructuring.

We approach each transaction with a fresh perspective to deliver the most innovative and effective outcomes. Highly regarded for our expertise, we act alongside the specialized teams of the largest Dutch offices.

What we have to offer

We are looking for an associate to join our team, focusing on high-end structured finance work in direct contact with our clients and being involved in every step of high-value transactions, from the beginning to closing. A unique opportunity for professional development within a close-knit team of multidisciplinary experts with decades of experience, intellectual rigour, excellence in law, highly competitive with teams at the biggest firms.

The role also offers flexibility, creativity and accessibility in a niche law firm with market-based conditions of employment. Career opportunities in growing to the position of partner are open for discussion.
